

INVENTORY OF THOMAS DURRENT, MILLER.

NRO –ANW 23/25/55

An inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels and rights, credits and effects which were of Thomas Durrent, late of Castle Rising in the \county of Norfolk, miller, deceased intestate, valued and appraised this the thirty-first day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand, seven hundred and sixty-two as follows-

	£	s	d
Cash in the deceased's pocket	0	11	3½
Do from his master for wages and since his death received	6	12	6
A debt due from John Bayfield to the decd. On his death	1	1	0
A piece of cotton thickset for a frock and trimmings	1	8	0
A coat, frock and breeches	2	2	0
A coat and two waistcoats	0	5	0
An old frock and pr linings	0	1	0
Two pair of boots, two pair of old shoos, one pair of pumps	0	7	0
Two waistcoats	0	18	6
Three ditto	0	5	0
A coat and pair breeches	0	10	0
Three hats	0	5	0
Four stocks and a clasp	0	3	0
Two coarse shirts	0	8	0
One fine ditto	0	5	0
Three pair old stockings	0	3	0
Three handkerchiefs	0	3	0
An old coffer	0	1	6
A pair old twill bags	0	0	6

A horse whip	0	1	0
Three ewes and a lamb	0	15	0
A silver watch	2	2	0

	18	18	3½

John Lovett, John Harred X his mark

Valued and appraised at eighteen pounds, eighteen shillings and three pence half penny the day and year aforesaid.