

INVENTORY OF BARBARY VILLERS, WIDOW 1729-1731

NRO ANW 23/19/49

A true Inventory of the Goods and Effects of Barbary Villers, Widdow, deceased at Castle Rising in Norfolk ye fourth day of December 1730 ys as follows

	£	s	d
One bed and bedding	2	0	0
One Chest and Cubboard	0	7	0
One fine Cradle	0	5	0
Three Chairs and one Table	0	7	0
One dozen of Plates and a Kettle	0	6	0
One Boyler and a Brass Kettle	0	14	0
One pair of Bellows	0	1	6
One Pewter Shelf	0	0	8
One dozen of Trenchers	0	1	0
One Silver Cup and Spoon	0	15	0
One Spice Box and Drawers	0	2	0
Wearing Apparel	1	10	0
Table Linen	0	2	0
Irons	0	4	0
One Quart of Coals	0	4	6
One Warming Pan	0	1	6
Debts Good and Bad	8	0	0

In all	15	2	2

Robert Crane R his mark. Robert Oster

The only record I have of anyone with this name is Simon Villere in the Lee t Court in 1688. However Colin Dence in his book records that one of the Alehouse keepers in the village was Symon Villers in 1688. Was this his widow 42 years later? Her burial in Castle Rising is noted in the Parish records in 1730. Nor could I find any reference to either of the witnesses Crane and Oster.